Once upon a time there lived a very poor shoemaker and his wife.

The Elves and the Shoemaker

When the elves crept into the shop that night and saw the clothes, they were so overjoyed they danced and sang with delight!

The next morning he was amazed to find two beautiful pairs of shoes standing on his table!

The shoemaker and his wife never saw the elves again but they were forever grateful to them for showing them how to make beautiful shoes.

With the money, the shoemaker bought enough leather to make two pairs of shoes. Before he went to bed he layed out the leather to work on the next day.

The next morning he was amazed to find a beautiful pair of shoes standing on his table!

They were very surprised to see two small elves come into the shop and stitch the shoes together carefully. The poor little elves wore no clothes!

One night before he went to bed, the shoemaker cut out the last of his leather to work on the next day.

Soon the shoemaker became a very rich man. One night the shoemaker and his wife hid inside the shop to find out who they owed their riches to.

The shoemaker's wife made two little shirts, two tiny pairs of trousers and some socks, to thank the elves.

In fact, the shoes were so beautiful that when someone came to try them on they paid twice as much as the shoemaker had asked for them!
