

British People

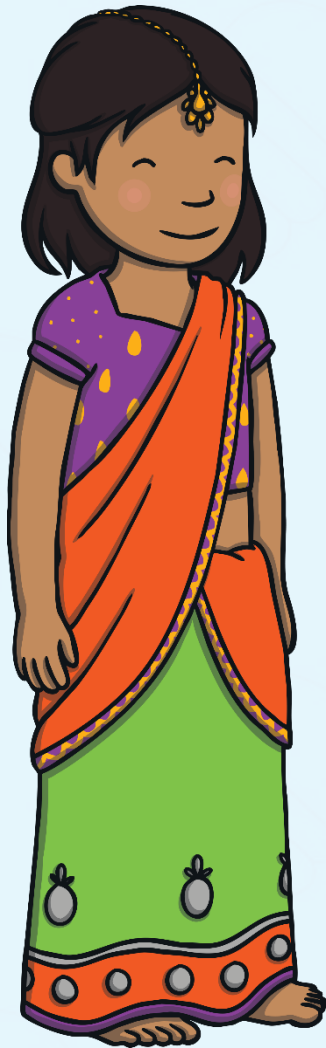

Aim

- To explore how people living in Britain can be different and how they are the same.

Success Criteria

- I can think about why it is important to have differences.
- I can think about why it is important to show respect to others.
- I can write down how I can make all people feel happy and welcome.

In what ways can British people be different from one another?

How are British people similar to one another?

Similarities and Differences

People have lots of similarities and differences.

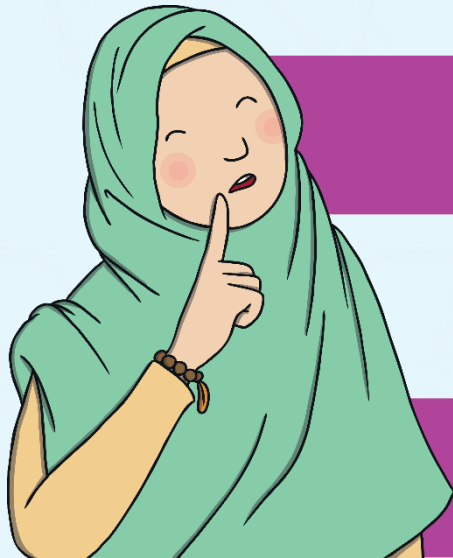

Similarities are things that are the same and differences are things that are different.

There are many ways that people can be different from each other.
There are also lots of ways that people can be similar.

In the whole world, no two people are completely the same. This is very exciting!

Similarities and Differences

Do you notice some of the ways that you are similar to your classmates?

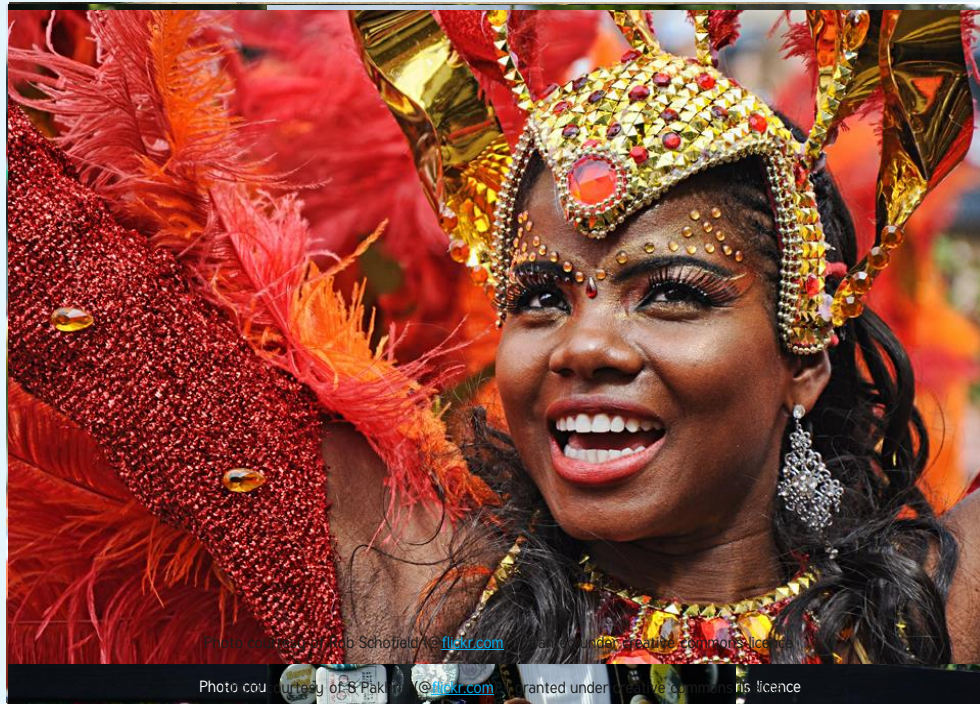

Do you also notice some of the ways that you are different?

Can you think of other ways that people can be similar to or different from one another?

Isn't it great that we are all different in so many interesting ways?

British People

Just like there are lots of different children and adults in our class and school, there are lots of different kinds of people living in Britain.

Do you know how all of these people are similar?

They are all British!

British People

Britain is a multicultural country.

This means that people who live in Britain come from many different backgrounds.

British people can look very different from each other. British people have lots of different coloured hair and skin and eyes.

They wear lots of different kinds of clothes, eat many different kinds of food, speak many languages and enjoy doing lots of different kinds of things.

This is something for us to celebrate!

Talk about how the people are different from one another. Using the coloured pens, draw or write your ideas on a big piece of paper.

Being Different

How Can British People Be Different from One Another?

Remember, although we are all different, we all live in Britain. How wonderful that we live in a country full of lots of different kinds of people!

Reflecting

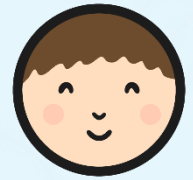

Celebrating Differences

We have seen that lots of different kinds of people live in Britain and that this is something to feel very happy about.

We can enjoy spending time with, and learning about, people who are different from us. This can often teach us new and exciting things.

Celebrating Differences

What differences between British people do you think makes Britain an exciting place to live?

Draw and write your thoughts on the Celebrating Differences Activity Sheet. You can use the word bank to help you.

Word Bank:

- clothes
- food
- beliefs
- appearance
- hobbies
- houses

Respecting Others

Differences are exciting!

Everyone who lives in Britain has the right to live as they want, dress as they want and believe what they want.

Everybody who lives in Britain has the right to live a happy and safe life.

We can help this to happen by respecting the differences between people who live in Britain.

If somebody is different from us, we can show that we respect them and help to make them feel happy.

We can do this by smiling at them, being friendly and finding out more about their way of life.

Respecting Others

How could you show that you respect the differences of people you meet?

Use the heart to write or draw one way that you can show people who are different from you that you respect them.

Together we can make our country a happy and welcoming place for all people!
