To be able to publish my
non-chronological report.

Warm up task

Read through your reports and answer any next steps or improvements I have wrote.

Today we are going to be publishing our non-chronological reports.

What does this mean?

It means we are going to use all of the improvements and corrections we made whilst proof reading or from Mr Lee to write our final, neat copy!

Before we do that we need to remember a few things..

Who are we writing the reports for (our audience)

Newby Leisure
The playground builders!

What are our reports about?

Longboats

To publish our work we will need to:

Use our best handwriting

Make sure we use all of the corrections that have been made

Use all of the features of a non-chronological report
