

PSHE and Citizenship

Wider World | Britain

Living in Britain

Aim

- I can describe what it is like to live in Britain.

Success Criteria

- I can talk about the range of identities in the United Kingdom.
- I can describe the benefits of living in a diverse multicultural society.

The Big Questions

What kinds of people are British People?

What is it like to live in Britain?

British People

British people are any people who live in the United Kingdom. Its official name is the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. It is often shortened to Great Britain or Britain

What kinds of people do you think are British people?
Share your thoughts with a partner.

The United Kingdom

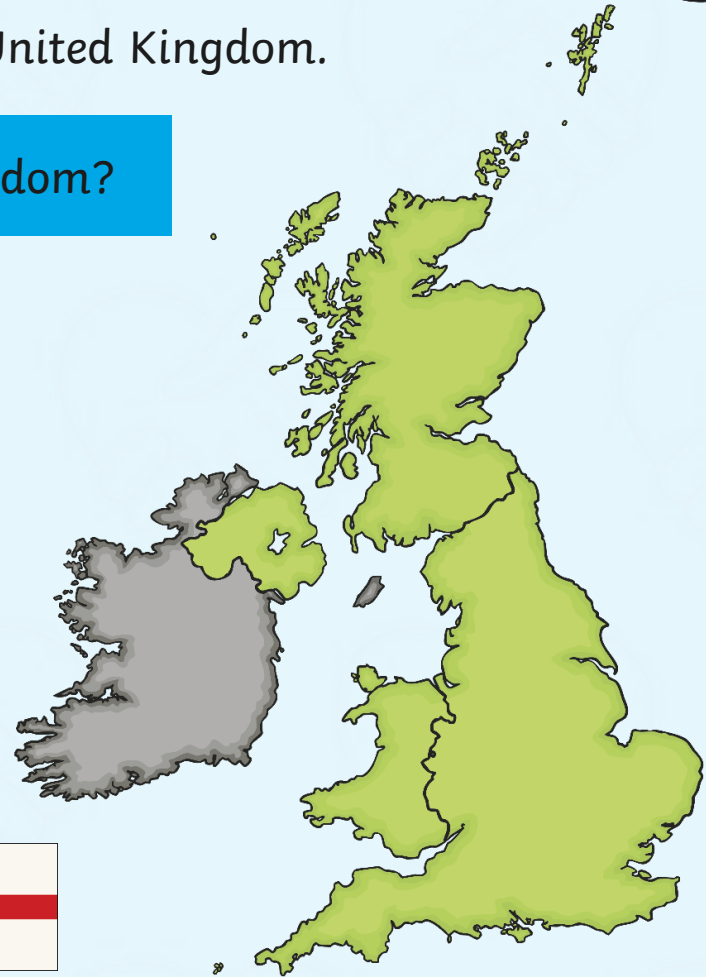

This is a map of the United Kingdom.

Which countries make up the United Kingdom?

Which country is our school in?

England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland make up the United Kingdom. There are differences between people living in these four countries, but they are all British.

The United Kingdom

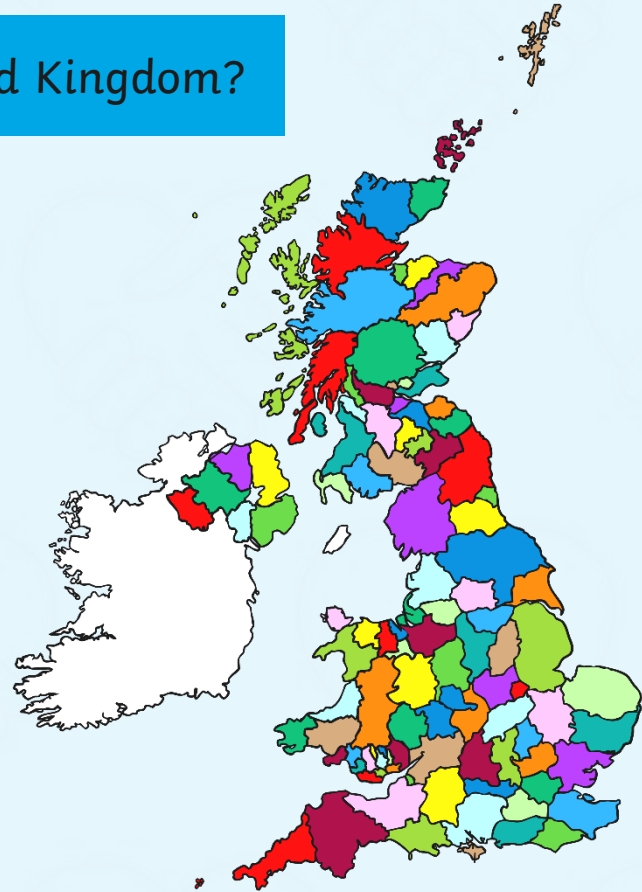

Within each of the countries, there are different regions and counties.

Can you name any regions within the United Kingdom?

Which region or county is our school in?

There are differences between people living in the different regions and counties of the United Kingdom, but they are all British.

The United Kingdom

Lots of different kinds of people live in the United Kingdom. This means that there are lots of different identities. There are different nationalities, religions, cultures and races and all of these people have different beliefs and traditions. This is exciting!

Ways That British People
Can Be Different

Images of Britain

Now, let's explore what it is like to live in Britain.

You are going to work in a group to discuss some images which show life in Britain.

What does each image tell you about life in Britain?

Stick each one of your images to a large piece of paper and use coloured pens to write about what you can see.

In your groups, share your images and what you have noticed with the class.

Images of Britain

The people who live in Britain can be described as being diverse. This means they are different from each other in lots of ways.

People who live in Britain have a wide range of different backgrounds, ethnicities, religions, beliefs and traditions.

Britain is also described as being multicultural. This means that it contains people from lots of different cultures.

Being British is about respecting and valuing each other's differences. This is something to be very proud of!

Consolidating

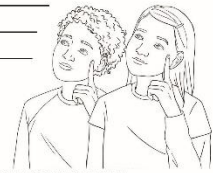

Reflecting

multicultural respect differences

British

[illegible]

Twinkl is a fully endorsed Learning Outcome and Core Knowledge with the PSE Association of Educators of Study

 PSHE and Citizenship | Year 3 | Order of Britain | Using in Britain | Lesson 1 visit twinkl.com

countries

cultures

religions

beliefs

traditions

Celebrating Diversity

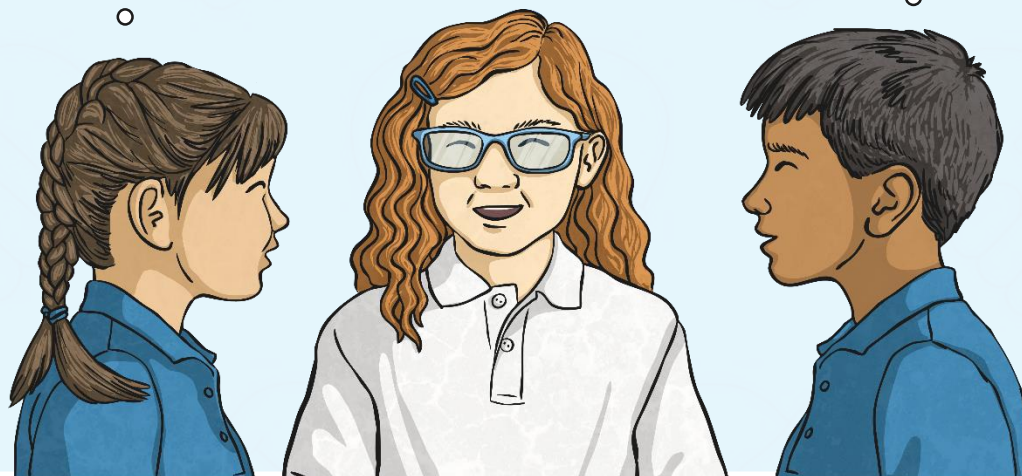

Take a moment of quiet to think about your answers to these questions.

What is good about living in a multicultural country with lots of different kinds of people?

Share your thoughts with the class.

What would it be like to live in a society where everyone was the same?

The Big Questions

What kinds of people are British people?

What is it like to live in Britain?

Have your answers to these questions changed from the beginning of the lesson?

