To be able to identify and
change present and past
tense.

What can people remember about the present tense?

What can people remember about the past tense?

Will this video help you to remember what they are?

Tense song

Let's have a look now and see if we were right?

Present and Past Tense

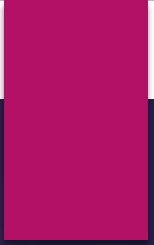

So what is the present tense?

Tell your partner!

It is when things are happening now.

We are currently doing English.

Who else can come up with a sentence in the present tense?

So what is the past tense?

Tell your partner!

It is things that have already happened. It could be a long time ago or a short time ago, but they have already happened.

We did Collective Worship this morning.

Who else can come up with a sentence in the past tense?

Your Task

You have all got a task today to do with the past and present tense.

To start with, you will need to change words between past and present tense.

For example... playing and played.
Then you will need to do the same in sentences.
