To be able to act out a playscript.

Who can remember the features of a Play Script?

Can you and your partner make a list of the features that you can remember on your whiteboard?

Today we are going to be using a Play Script to act out a story. We will be working in groups over the next two days to act out the story.

Before we start though, we need to remind ourselves of a couple of things.

The part

Goldilocks and the three bears - Play script

Characters: Narrator, Goldilocks, Papa Bear, Mama Bear, Baby Bear

Scene 1

Narrator: Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Goldilocks.

Goldilocks: I'll go to the forest to play and gather some flowers.

Narrator: When she was in the forest chasing butterflies, she saw a pretty little house.

Goldilocks: I am thirsty! I will go over there; maybe they can give me a glass of water.

Narrator: So she went to the house and knocked at the door.

Narrator: And she jumped up and ran out of the room. Goldilocks ran down the stairs, opened the door, and ran away into the forest. She never returned to see any of the three bears.

3 Bears: Good-byeeeeeeee!! (Waving their hands together)

directions.
These are what the actor needs to do, not say!

So in our groups we are going to be acting out the play script.

Today we are going to be practicing it all and then tomorrow we will split it up and focus on a scene each.

What do we need to remember to be successful?

- Follow the script
- Work together as a team
- Think how the character would be feeling and act in that way
- Loud and clear voices so the audience can hear.
