Introduction.

What is the purpose of an introduction?

They should be short, catchy and engaging.

No more than two sentences to introduce the topic.

Let's have a look at my introduction.

Here at Saint Nicholas CE Primary Academy in Boston, we really want you to join our school family. We are going to tell you why Saint Nicholas Academy is the school for you.

What do you notice about this introduction?

What does it tell you?

Now it's your turn.

Think carefully about what you need to include in your short introduction. Remember, we are writing to persuade.

Be positive, be engaging!

Can you write your own introductory paragraph using your plan from last week?
