

Tolerance and Respect

Aim

- To be able to describe a diverse society and talk about why it is important.

Success Criteria

- I can interpret a diversity data table.
- I can write a poem to explain and celebrate diversity.
- I can identify ways to show respect to others.
- I can discuss why showing respect and being tolerant is important

The Big Questions

What is diversity and why is it important?

Why should we be respectful of others?

Diversity

Diverse means a wide variety.

Society means a community where people are living together.

So, in what ways can a society be diverse?

Share your thoughts with someone. You can use the pictures to help you.

Now, share your ideas or write them down.

Diverse Britain

Britain is a diverse society because there is a variety of people from different ethnic groups and religions.

People who live in Britain come from lots of different ethnic, religious and cultural backgrounds. We are fortunate to live in a diverse society.

Here are two data tables which show the range of identities of people living in Britain.

Diversity Data Sheet

Religion	Percentage of the Population
Muslim	5%
Sikh	1%
No religion	25%
Hindu	2%
Christian	59%
Jewish	1%
Not Stated	7%

Ethnic Group	Percentage of the Population
Black/African/Caribbean/Black British	3%
Asian/Asian British	8%
White	86%
Mixed/Multiple Ethnic Groups	2%
Other Ethnic Group	1%

Diverse Britain

What do the data tables tell us about the diversity within Britain?

Look carefully at both Diversity Data Tables with your group. Using your coloured pens, write your answers to these questions on your piece of paper.

Which different religions can be found in Britain?

Which different ethnic groups can be found in Britain?

Could there be any more religions that aren't in the data table? Why? Can you think of any?

Could there be any more ethnic groups that aren't in the data table? Why? Can you think of any?

What did you find out?

Diverse Britain

Why do you think diversity is important?

Diversity is important because it means we can spend time with, and learn new things about the world from, lots of different people.

It also helps us learn how to get along with people who are different to us, which can make the world a better place for everyone.

Diversity is important because differences make our communities and country strong and beautiful.

Consolidating

Reflecting

Celebrating Diversity

Diversity in Britain is something to be celebrated.

Write an acrostic poem to explain to others what diversity is and why it should be celebrated.

- What could you include in your poem?

Being Respectful and Tolerant

We live in a diverse country; we are all different. Being respectful of others can help make us all feel happier.

Take a moment to think about your answer to this question:

How can I show respect to those who are different to me? Write your ideas on a sticky note.

What a lot of wonderful ideas!
Let's all make sure we do these in our daily school life.

Why is it important to be tolerant of people's differences?

Let's do our bit to make the world a happier, more accepting and tolerant place.

The Big Questions

How could you use what you have learnt today in school?
