To be able to explain how
a Poem makes me feel.

Today we are going to be starting to look at poetry.

What can you tell your partner about poetry?

One form of poetry is songs.

The lyrics in a song are a poem.

Today we are going to be using the song

Run by Snow Patrol.

We will listen to the song, then read the lyrics before answering some questions.

Talk to your partner.

Now that you have heard the song and read the lyrics what does the song make you feel?
