

John Archer

https://www.liverpool.ac.uk/black-atlantic/information/john_archer/?fbclid=IwAR2dFOctopts9kbnNQ6aUdKb0bRw1umWFw5J6z2pdQrOkZsGoX6Kcfoyf4Y

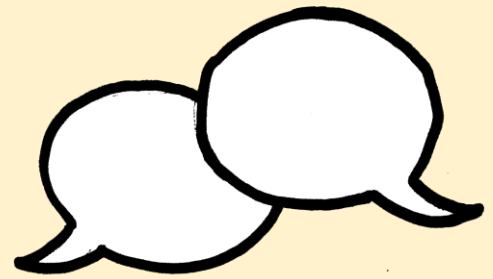

Quick Start

- Why did people think John was foreign-born?
- Where was his mother from?
- Where was he actually born?
- Where did he become mayor of?
- Who was actually the first black mayor in Britain?

Vocabulary Check

- Battersea was at the time dominated by the Labour
- goodbye to the prestige of Great Britain.
- still need reparation to be made to us
- are the ones to bear malice
- How have we shown this resentment?
- How have they been requited?

Partnered Talk

What interests did John have,
other than politics?

Individual Thinking

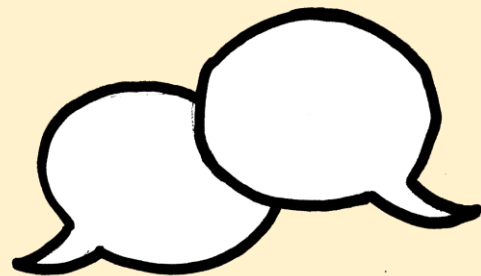

People did not accept John because of the colour of his skin.

Do you agree or disagree with this statement?

Find evidence from the text which supports your answer.

Partnered Talk

‘So there is not so much of the foreigner about me after all.’

How did John explain this to the people who called him a foreigner?

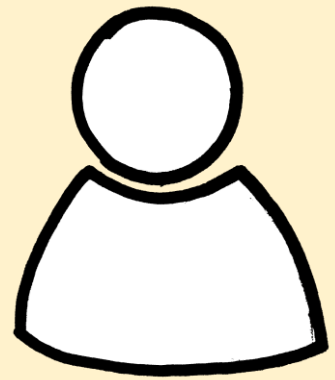

Individual Thinking

‘Keir Hardie and Ramsay MacDonald are well-known as the founding fathers of the Labour Party, but the part played by Liverpool-born John Archer is not always remembered.’

Why do you think John Archer’s role was not remembered in history?

Solo Work

Why do you think John Archer's role as mayor and a political leader was important during this time period?

Explain your answer using evidence from the text.