

The Story of Exodus

This is the story of Exodus, however, it is in the wrong order. Can you cut out the different parts of the story and put them back together so that the story is in the correct order?

The Hebrews got tired of waiting for Moses and started to worship their own God - a golden calf. This made Moses angry, and he broke the stone tablet showing the Ten Commandments.

twinkl.com

Moses heard God's voice telling him to lead the Hebrews out of Egypt, away from enslavement. He wanted Moses to take them to the Promised Land. But, the Pharaoh would not let the Hebrews go.

twinkl.com

The people finally saw the error of their ways and were very sorry.

twinkl.com

To keep Moses safe, his mother sent him down the River Nile in a basket. He was rescued by the Pharaoh's daughter and lived in the castle as a prince.

twinkl.com

The Pharaoh changed his mind and sent his army after the Hebrews. God helped Moses to part the waters of the Red Sea, and the Hebrews escaped to the desert.

twinkl.com

They were in the desert for a long time and the journey was hard. But God sent help to them and Moses by sending food and water. After three months, God met Moses at the top of Mount Sinai and gave him the Ten Commandments.

twinkl.com

After he killed an Egyptian in a fight, he had to leave the country. He lived in a place called Midian for 40 years and worked as a shepherd.

twinkl.com

Moses was born. At this time, the Hebrews were enslaved people in Egypt and all baby boys were killed by the Pharaoh's army when they were born.

twinkl.com

God sent ten plagues to punish the Egyptians. The tenth plague killed the Pharaoh's eldest son and the Pharaoh finally decided to let the Hebrews go. They painted red blood on their doors to keep them safe from the plague.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com