

Explore Nigeria

Epic
Facts 4-6

<https://www.getepic.com/app/read/57933>

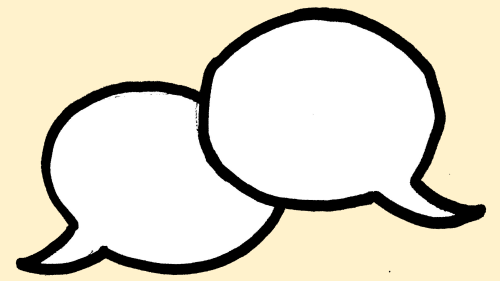

Vocabulary Check

- A constitution outlines how the government works.
- Other laws have been inherited from the time of British rule.
- This person is appointed by the president.
- Corruption in the government...
- More than half of Nigeria's people live in poverty.
- Nigeria exports cocoa beans...

Quick Start

- How old must you be to vote in Nigeria?
- Who appoints the inspector general or the police?
- Who was elected president in 2015?
- What does Nigeria's economy depend on?
- List three foods that are illegal to import into Nigeria.
- Which area of the country provides better education?
- Why are girls often taken out of school?

Partnered Talk

Sharia Law is an Islamic code of law.

Summarise what it means using the information in section 4.

Individual Thinking

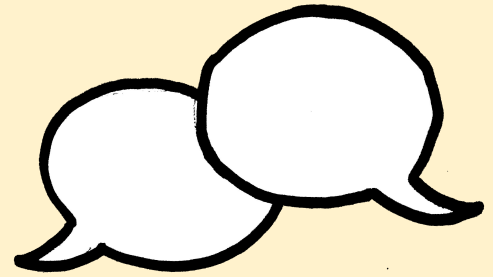

Using the information in section 4, what three things is the law of Nigeria based on?

Individual Thinking

Explain what is meant by Gross Domestic Product (GDP) from the information in section 5.

Partnered Talk

Girls are often taken out of school to help with work in the home.

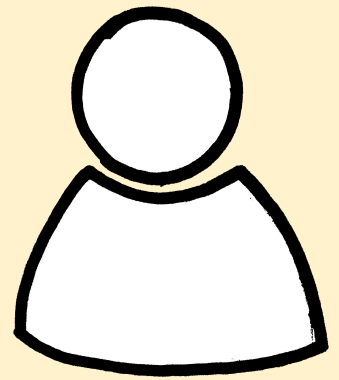

What impact will this have on the amount of people who receive an education in Nigeria?

Individual Thinking

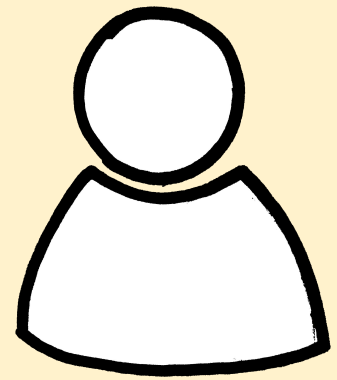

Why are services like education beginning to struggle?

Quiz Notes

You now have eight minutes to read sections 7 and 8. Make notes on what you think is the most relevant information. There will be a short quiz afterwards where the text will be taken away and you will only have your notes.

Quiz Notes - The Quiz

- The Federal Ministry of Science and Technology (FMST) has how many research institutes?
 - What percentage of Nigerian college students study science and engineering?
- What types of renewable energy sources are important for Nigeria's economy?
 - True or false: very few people use public transport in Nigeria.
- What is the name of the vehicle which is like a taxi on a motorbike?
 - How many miles of railroads are there in Nigeria?
 - How many airports are there in Nigeria?