

Martin Luther King

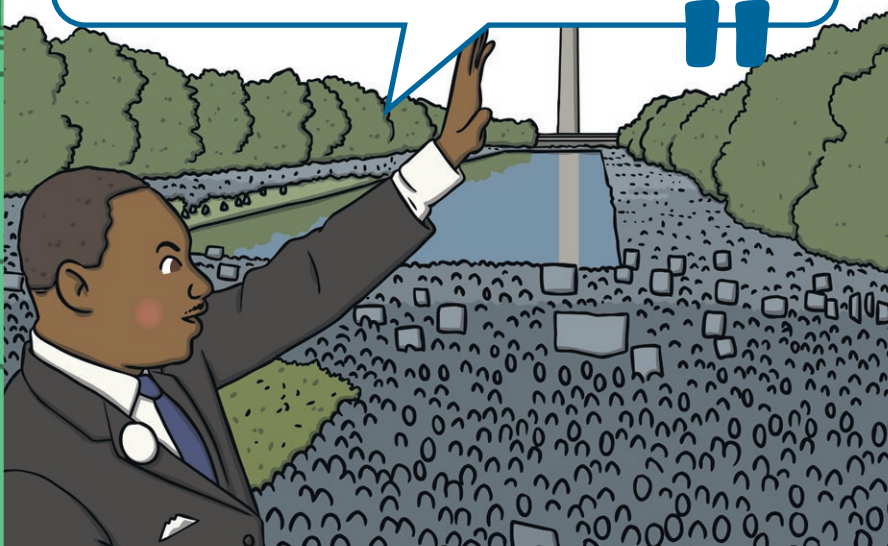

Martin Luther King was born in the United States of America (USA). His life was sometimes hard. Some people treated him differently because of the colour of his skin.

In the USA, there were different areas for Black people and White people on buses and in parks.

Martin Luther King wanted all people to be treated the same. He once told people about his dreams. Here is a little bit of his speech:

I have a dream that one day
little Black boys and Black girls will be able to join hands with little White boys
and White girls as sisters and brothers.

Did You Know...?

Martin liked to...

play sports,

play the piano

and go to school

when he was a child.

It is because of Martin Luther King, and others like him, that things have become better for Black people in the USA. However, there is still progress to be made.
