IMPORTANT NEWS

Dear Parents and Carers of EYFS children,

It is with mixed emotions that I write to you today.

Due to some extremely difficult personal circumstances, Mrs Coupland has, with the full support of Infinity Academies Trust, made the decision to become a full-time carer for her Father. This means Mrs Coupland will no longer be teaching in Noah's Ark Class.

Within the Infinity Academies Trust, our main aim is to provide our children with consistently high teaching and learning opportunities in order for them to fulfil their potential.

At St Nicholas CE Primary Academy, we are incredibly lucky to be surrounded by brilliantly talented members of staff. Mrs Tory – a fully qualified teacher who has been working as Gospels class TA for a number of months – will now take over the role of Class Teacher in Noah's Ark class. Mrs Tory has a wealth of experience in a range of Early Years settings and is an extremely talented 'Playdough Potter' who cannot wait to bring EYFS alive with lots of creative and exciting learning opportunities for the children!

Mrs Tory and Noah's Ark Class will be ably supported by Mrs Clarke who also brings with her lots of wonderful ideas for how to extend and inspire learning. I know the children will thrive within this team.

The children of Noah's Ark Class entered school this morning to discover a completely revamped classroom with a whole range of different resources and opportunities to be engaged on offer – they will come home full of stories about their 'new class'!

Mrs Tory and Mrs Clarke will send their own Newsletter home in the next couple of weeks outlining Noah's Ark Routines and Expectations. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to speak to Mrs Tory/ Mrs Clarke at the start/ end of the day or arrange a meeting via the Main Office.

I know you will be just as delighted as we are to welcome Mrs Tory and Mrs Clarke to their new roles.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs F. Booth
Head of Academy
