KEEP IN TOUCH!

We all know that Education is a partnership. In order for every member of our school family to reach their potential we know how important good communication between home and school is. Therefore, in order to enable as much parental engagement in the life of our school and the learning of your child as possible, we have developed a whole host of ways to keep you up to speed with everything that's happening at our incredible school! You can get a glimpse of what learning opportunities are on offer to your child every day and take a more active part in their learning journey by using the following methods:

- You could use our school website: www.bostonstnicholas.co.uk
- Explore your child's class web-page (Go to the school website homepage, click the 'Children' drop down menu and scroll down to 'Class Pages'): <https://www.bostonstnicholas.co.uk/class-pages-1/>
- Find us on the school Twitter account: @BostonStNic
- Each class has their own Twitter account where daily updates, including exciting pictures, are added:

Class	Twitter Account
Noah's Ark	@StNNoahsArk
Gospels	@StGospels
Apostles	@StNApostles
Disciples	@StNDisciples
Pilgrims	@StNPilgrims

- Check out the Infinity Academies Website for a glimpse into the lives of other schools within our Trust Family: www.infinityacademies.co.uk
- Sign up to the Infinity Academy Twitter account to see daily updates from across the Trust: @InfinityAcad

I look forward to seeing lots more parents following us on our Twitter pages and even more people attending the wealth of events on offer for the Community within school!

Many thanks,
Mrs Booth
