

Data Collecting and Graphing

Choose a question to collect and graph data about. The question could be based on your class or something in your school, e.g. children's favourite ice cream flavour or the types of trees in the school.

1. Write your investigation question.

2. Organise how you will collect your data and survey the class to collect your information.

3. Display your data on a graph including all the important information.

